

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota High School Club Baseball officially began its fourth season of statewide spring high school club baseball the week of March 26 through April 2, 2004; and,

Whereas, There are currently 12 Division A teams and 28 Division B teams organized with students from 48 schools; and,

Whereas, The season schedule is organized in such a way that each game establishes each team's position in the playoffs that begin in mid-May; and,

Whereas, The Division A Championships, Semi-finals, and Finals will be held in Brookings and the Division B Championships, Semi-finals, and Finals will be held in Chamberlain, both on May 31, 2004; and,

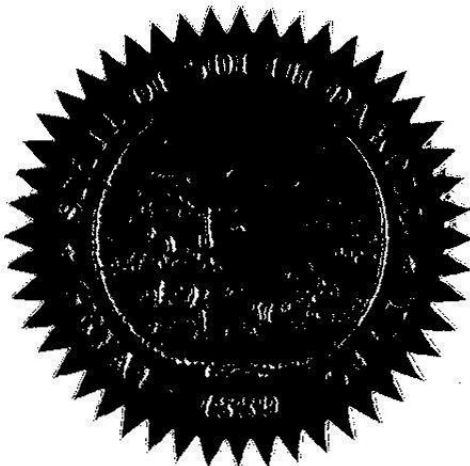

Whereas, The spring high school club baseball regional playoffs and championships have become an exciting venue for spring sports players and fans, and allows intermediate-sized cities in South Dakota the opportunity to host a state high school sports championship:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 31, 2004, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
